

Project Details

I Remember a House

I Remember a House is an animated short film that explores my relationship to past houses. The animation is hand-drawn on paper, painted with watercolor, and features my own voice as narration. The film is under five minutes and shot under the camera in DragonFrame.

Link: <https://vimeo.com/crookedhomes/irememberahouse>